- A yellow buoy marks Craig an Roan rocks ~400 m to the east of the harbour.
- A perch marks a sewer outfall ~200m to the west of the harbour.
- An orange buoy marks a shoal area just to the east of the harbour, while a yellow buoy marks the end of a substantial shoal running NE from the south wall of the harbour; pass between these when entering and leaving the harbour.
- There is an unmarked rock ~100 m off the starter's box on the harbour; 1m above seabed and does not dry except on extreme spring tide. It may be marked with a small pale-yellow buoy on its seaward side.
- Moored boats and mooring buoys are offshore from the harbour and may have trailing lines at the surface.

The Inverness Firth and Inner Moray Firth Areas are subject to a number of further hazards in particular:

- Strong tides in the narrows
- Creels and associated marker buoys (these may be Submerged in certain tidal conditions) laid in the shallower parts including on Skate Bank Shoal areas
- Boulder strewn shorelines
- Merchant shipping activity and other recreational usage.

Participants are requested to maintain a sharp lookout and navigate with due care and attention.

11. Disclaimer of liability, risk statement and insurance requirement

Competitors participate in the event entirely at their own risk. See Rule 4, Decision to Race. The organising authority will not accept any liability for material damage or personal injury, or death sustained in conjunction with or prior to, during or after the event.

Rule 4 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue racing is hers alone."

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;

They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;

They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;

Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;

The provision of a race organiser, and other officials and volunteers does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;

This event has no safety boat cover, competitors should have a high degree of self-sufficiency; in the event of serious safety incident communications should be direct between vessel and Aberdeen Coastguard by DSC or Channel 16 as appropriate;

It is their responsibility to familiarise themselves with any risks specific to the event drawn to their attention in any rules and information produced for the event and to attend any safety briefing held for the event.

Their boat is adequately insured (including racing risk), with valid cover of at least £2,000,000 against third party claims.

12. Prizes

Prizes will be awarded after racing at the clubhouse. Prizes will be awarded to up to the first three boats in each class at the discretion of the organising authority. The CSC Cruiser Cup and the Taylor Cup will be awarded for the Fast and Slow handicap winner respectively.

13. Berthing, water taxi and hospitality

Free moorings and harbour berthing (both subject to availability & access to harbour dependent on height of tide), are available for visitors participating in the event who have paid the entry fee. Contact the Harbour Master: harbourmaster@chanonry.org.uk

Water taxi will be available pre-race, post-race and post-social.

Post-race, around the prize giving, a social event will be held with hot food and a licensed bar. All past and present MYA crews and families are welcome to attend this social which is scheduled to start in the clubhouse after racing has finished. CSC has adequate car parking facilities for any visitors not competing in the race but travelling by car to the end of season social event. It really helps those providing hospitality to have a rough idea in advance of how many people are going to want the excellent food – please let us know.
