

West of Scotland Boat Jumble

(FORMERLY THE SCOTTISH BOAT JUMBLE)

For the third year in succession the organisers are pleased to announce that the Spring event will take place on Sunday 30 April 2017 starting at 10 am. at the Scottish Maritime Museum Wharf, The Harbourside, Irvine.

Refreshments and food will be available all day at two venues within the event, with seating available within the popular Puffers Café and for those wishing to eat “on the move”, at an adjacent outside area.

If you need rope, fittings, fenders, oars, fishing gear or the choice of a thousand other bits and pieces, then Irvine Harbourside is where you need to be on the first Sunday in October.

It's also an ideal opportunity for clubs/individuals to organise a stall selling surplus gear at the end of the season. With 5x5m pitches available for £30 and 5x2.5m car boot spaces for £20, this could be a money-earner for club funds/individuals.

Entry Prices

Entry to the boat jumble will be £4.00, with accompanying children under 16 years of age, free. Customers of the boat jumble can also enjoy 50% off the normal entry cost to the Scottish Maritime Museum Linthouse building and Shipyard Worker's Flat on production of their Boat jumble ticket.

Directions

Travelling to the venue is extremely easy. By road follow the signs to Irvine Harbourside and then the directions to the Boat Jumble. Free car parking is available within a few minutes walk, as is Irvine Railway Station and local bus services.
