Terms and Conditions

Item	Entitlement and Conditions
1. General conditions	Entitlements only apply provided membership subscriptions are kept up to date. All members are to maintain insurance for any boat or other vessel they own or part own that is kept or used at the Club or on the moorings including third party and public liability indemnity for at least £2,000,000.
2. Disposal of abandoned vessels and property	In applying for or renewing membership, all members acknowledge the following provisions for the disposal of abandoned vessels and property. I/we understand that if I/we fail to pay my/our membership, mooring, berthing or storage fees or resign or are expelled from membership of the Club I/we forfeit the right to store property at the Club and agree to remove all such property. I/we understand that if any property belonging to me / us is not removed in a timely manner, then I/we agree that in such circumstances the Club may sell or otherwise dispose of my/our relevant property (e.g., boat, trailer, cradle or parts thereof; or other small vessel). And I/we understand and allow that the Club reserves the right to charge me/us any costs incurred by the Club through disposal (this includes civil litigation should that prove necessary). This will take effect from a date 2 months after the end of my/our Club membership (1 May in the case of non-payment of membership fees) or non-payment of the relevant mooring or storage fee unless otherwise allowed in writing by the Chanonry Sailing Club Board.
3. Senior subscription rates	Senior subscription rates apply when a member is of State Pension age on 1 January of the membership year. For couples the rate applies when the younger of the couple is of State Pension age.
4. Junior subscription rates	Junior subscription rates apply to members who are under 18 years of age on 1 January of the membership year.
5. Student subscription rates	Student subscription rates apply to members in full-time education.
6. Visitor subscription rates	Visitor rates apply for membership of up to 2 consecutive weeks.
7. Member of Moorings Association	Entitled members may become a member of the Moorings Association on payment of the relevant fee and on signing the appropriate lease. Details via the Harbour Master.

Item	Entitlement and Conditions
8. Exclusive use of clubroom	Members may book the clubroom for private functions with the Social Convenor. Bookings will only be accepted when there are no Club activities scheduled and on the condition that the Member takes responsibility to leave the room as found. The Member booking will also be responsible for securing the clubhouse on completion. Information on charges is available from the Social Convenor at social@chanonry.org.uk Where the booking is on behalf of a junior member the booking must be made by a parent or person in loco parentis.
9. Access to clubhouse	Members who already have a key to the Clubhouse may continue to use this. Otherwise members, other than juniors, will be given the access code to the keysafe at the front door. Members using the clubhouse are responsible for securing the building at the end of their activity. Juniors should only access the clubhouse when an adult member is present.
10. Use of dinghy park	Members may use the dinghy park as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Members may store one dinghy, tender or other small vessel in the dinghy park on payment of the storage charge payable at the time. • Space permitting members may store extra dinghies on payment of the storage charge applicable at the time. • Launch trolleys and vessels with no trolley must be labelled with owner name and phone number. • Running rigging must be tied back to prevent noise disturbance to our neighbours. • In the period following New Year and shortly before the first club sailing event of the new season, members who do not intend to sail during this period should remove their boats from the dinghy park. Where they are unable to do this, masts ought to be un-stepped.
11. Cruiser berthing in the harbour	Members may keep a boat in the Harbour by agreement with the Harbour Master and on payment of the agreed berthing charge. Members are not to moor in such a way that renders the harbour steps unusable by other boats. Members are to take direction from the Harbour Master where given.
12. Use Club dinghies	Members may use the club dinghies when they are not required for training purposes, provided a safety boat is on the water and the helm is qualified to RYA Level 2 or RYA Stage 2 or has been assessed as competent by the RTC Principal at training@chanonry.org.uk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Breakages are to be reported to the RTC Principal.
13. Use Club St Ayles Skiffs	Members may use the St Ayles Skiffs as long as sufficient crew are available and the cox is assessed competent by the Rowing Secretary.
14. Use of slipways	Trailers & trolleys must not block the slipway except when in actual use.
15. Use of hard standing for cruiser storage	Members of the Moorings Association may store their boats ashore between crane-out and crane-in provided space is available and on payment of the storage charge payable at the time. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Boats must be stored in cradles or purpose built trailers and masts are to be un-stepped. • Cradles and trailers must be removed from the Club premises following crane-in.

Item	Entitlement and Conditions
16. Occasional use of harbour	Entitled members may use the harbour to undertake maintenance of their boats for loading and unloading. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stays expected to last longer than 24 hours should be booked in advance with the Harbour Master. • Members are not to moor in such a way that renders the harbour steps unusable by other boats. • Members are to take direction from the Harbour Master where given.
17. Attend training	Training is open to all members and can be booked via the RTC Principal at training@chanonry.org.uk . <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fees may apply depending upon the nature of the training. • Shore-based training may also be opened-up to non-Club members by agreement.
18. Take part in Club open events	All members can take part in Club open events on payment of any event fee.
19. Purchase Club merchandise	A range of merchandise carrying the Club logo can be purchased, see the club website.
20. Purchase discounted RYA Pubs	The Club can obtain discounts of between 20 & 30% on RYA Publications including DVDs. The Club marks-up publications to the nearest whole pound to cover P & P but most of the saving is passed on to the member. Orders or more information via the Training Principal. Cash on delivery.
